

Let's save energy together.

Also when studying.

Dear student

We've made some changes on campus to reduce our energy consumption.

Help us by washing your hands in cold water and switching off the light when you leave a room, and please take some extra clothes with you if you think it's cold.

If we all make an effort, we can make a difference.

Danish Energy
Agency

